

The Wisconsin no-call list law should remain as is. As retired people, we do not need frequent calls from telemarketers trying to sell us something. If we want to buy we have many other avenues to purchase. We appreciate our telephone privacy.